

James W. Frymier, Jr.

A seasoned professional with over 40 year's executive-level domestic and international management, development and consulting experience in hospitals and health care.

He has been a hospital chief executive officer, agency division director, consulting team leader, development director and construction project director.

His management and consulting experience encompasses a full range of acute care, non-acute and long-term care services in inpatient, outpatient, in the US and internationally.

His International assignments included projects in: Albania, Russia, Slovakia, Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Ethiopia, Guatemala, Japan, Panama, Nicaragua and Venezuela and his International sponsors have included the World Bank, Inter-American Development Bank (IADB), the Battelle Memorial Institute.

He is the International Project Development Team Lead for the ITCC Hospital project.